

April 2024 - N°4

EDITORIAL OF THE MONTH

After long months of sleep, April marks the awakening of nature. The vegetation is taking its first colors, the cherry trees are in bloom, the chocolate eggs are hiding in the tender grass and the fish are sticking to the back of anyone who comes along !

And then, it's Easter (), the most important holiday in the Christian calendar. () The word comes from the Hebrew Pessa'h (which designates the Jewish holiday of the same name), and which gave Pascha in Latin, then « Pâques » in French.

Happy Easter to everyone.

APRIL NEWS

Let's share our escapades !

This month, let's discover the Saint-Philibert de Lanvern chapel in Ploneour-Lanvern in Finistère.

SAINT-MACLOU

NORMAN HERITAGE FROM THE 11TH CENTURY

Our chapel is yours !

- A rural location for weddings and baptisms
- A place of prayer and contemplation
- A place of healing and history
- A place for cultural and artistic events

It is also a place that our association strives to bring to life, preserve and restore !

Note d'intention

2024/2034

Association des Amis de la Chapelle de Saint-Maclou

In order to communicate our intentions, this ten-year project will be presented in the coming months to the mayor of Mézidon Vallée d'Auge, the municipality that owns the chapel of Saint-Maclou.

An important step for our association, before raising funds to consider resuming restoration work from the chapel.

Our English Version Site, our English flyer and our Bilingual Visitor Booklet, we spoke to you about them as priority objectives, today these three supports have become a reality.

We now have communication that promotes our association to our foreign visitors and gives credibility to our action among local, regional, national and international decision-makers and institutions.

A big thank you to Denis Duriez and Christopher Clegg (members of our office) for their involvement in these three achievements.
