THE SQUIRREL
While we have just stocked up on sunshine to get through the winter, you, little red squirrel, have not finished your quest for nuts.

You will store them carefully in the hollow of your tree, so that they are within reach when your stomach starts to rumble!

Have a good winter, we can't wait to see you again in spring, running from branch to branch, ready to amaze us with your agility and your thousand and one antics.

VISIT OF THE MONTH

This month, we suggest you visit the Igreja da Graça church in Lisbon.

LA NEWSLETTER DES ADHÉRENTS ET SYMPATHISANTS DE L'ASSOCIATION
les Amis de la Chapelle de Saint-Maclou

SUNDAY, 2 NOVEMBER AT 4:00 PM

On Sunday, 2 November at 4:00 p.m., Father Materne will celebrate the traditional Mass for the deceased at the Chapel of Saint-Maclou.
Following the Epiphany Mass in January, Saint Marcouf's Day in May, and the Assumption in August, this November service will mark the end of our chapel's spiritual year.
Throughout the year, many of you have visited our chapel.
We cannot thank you enough for your loyalty to this place.

ONCE AGAIN, IN 2025, YOU HAVE BEEN GENEROUS !

Dear members, dear friends,
In September, we registered a few more memberships, adding to those we have recorded in recent months.
It goes without saying that this year, once again, you have responded in large numbers and with generosity.
Your support, renewed year after year, strengthens our commitment to preserving the heritage that is so dear to us.
This is the heritage of our countryside, which bears witness to the history of our region.
With you and thanks to you, we are committed to preserving it, bringing it to life and passing it on.
We thank you for your support.

A DATE TO REMEMBER !

As we announced in our September e-newsletter, we are pleased to confirm that we will be meeting on 6 December 2025 from 2.30 pm at the Chapel of Saint-Maclou.
On this date, we will be celebrating our twentieth anniversary and we would like to share this moment with you.
Most of us know what it means to be twenty years old and what memories it brings back, so let's not deprive ourselves of celebrating it once again !

OPEN AFTERNOON AT THE CHAPEL OF SAINT-MACLOU

On All Saints' Day, those of you who come to visit the graves of loved ones to lay flowers will find the doors of your chapel open...
On this special day for us all, we felt it was important to allow you to visit it and for us to welcome you.

CHRISTMAS CRÈCHE 2025

The new characters who will join the existing ones are currently being made !
The farmer's wife, the baker, the washerman and the laundress will be making their debut.
And this year, the big new feature will be on the south altar of the chapel, with a Christmas theme: a Christmas tree, Father Christmas, sleighs and toys galore will be part of the decor.
So, for those who are curious, come to the chapel from 6 December to admire all these little figures and start thinking about Christmas, that magical festive period which has been filling children's eyes with stars for thousands of years.

Scan this QR code, it will guide you to the chapel!
