

THE NOVEMBER EDITORIAL

AUTUMN COLORS Text and photo HJLepetit

A sky settling gray, they are the rays of sunshine of this magnificent season.

Under the shimmering shade, let's take some time to stroll and be intoxicated by the spectacle of nature's rich color.

In shades of pink, purple, yellow, and orange, let us be transported and forget that winter is coming.

Let's keep these autumn colors in our memories as long as possible before the white sets in, before the cold leaves us confined in front of the fireplace...
