

JULY EDITORIAL

"A light rain on a sunny July fills cellars and attics..."

The days grow shorter, darkness nibbles away at the light to make way for the gentle evenings.

At dusk, it's time to gather and set the table under the ancient olive tree, to let ourselves be intoxicated by the evening warmth that intensifies the scents of nature, which yearns for nothing but freshness.

Beautiful July, enchant our evenings, make our feasts festive, and leave us with only one desire until late into the night : to converse and dream until the breaking of dawn.

BIRTHDAY

From 2022 to 2026, four years that have passed in the blink of an eye.

'It was on July 2, 2022, after having founded it in 2005, that Patrick Truffaut, with the approval of his

Board of Directors, asked me to succeed him and become president of our association, the Friends of the Chapel of Saint-Maclou.

It will therefore be four years this July 2, 2026, since I took on the legacy of our association and, with an ever-growing team of dedicated volunteers, we continue to uphold our commitments to remain faithful to the project initiated by Patrick and his family. This fourth anniversary is an opportunity to thank you for your loyalty, your encouragement, and, through our association, the unwavering support you provide to our chapel.

So, a thousand thanks for being by our side, may the summer bring you beautiful and peaceful days, and may the coming months bring you health and happiness.
